

Eli Rudshagen

Senior Associate (leave of absence)

Eli Rudshagen, a senior associate in SANDS' technology team, focuses her practise on ICT contract law, innovation contracts, personal data protection law, dispute resolution, and regulatory compliance issues within the tech, health/life science and food industries.

✉ eru@sands.no

☎ +47 22 81 46 67

Her areas of expertise include drafting agreements and policies, contract audits, product and marketing compliance audits, and litigation related to commercial contracts.

In 2018-2019 Eli was a member of the team that conducted a complete revision of ICT Norway's standardized agreements and she is currently a member of the reference group for revision of the governmental standardized agreements (SSAs).

Expertise areas

Technology

In addition to the law degree, Eli holds a Bachelor's degree in Marketing from the Norwegian Business School (BI). She has worked for several years as the Managing Director of a fast-growing SME within the health/food industry and has broad marketing and project management experience.

Eli regularly provides counselling to members of Aleap and other innovation commercialization incubators.

Work experience

2018 -

- SANDS Advokatfirma DA
Associate

Education

2017

- University of Oslo
Master of Laws

2010

- Høgskolen i Vesfold
Oneyear English

2001

- Norwegian Business School - BI
Bachelor of Marketing, internationalization and management