

Katrine Malmer-Høvik

Partner

Katrine Malmer-Høvik is the the head of the firm's Intellectual Property group. Katrine has more than 22 years of experience within the field of patents, trademarks, designs, copyrights and marketing law. Katrine provides advice on legal aspects related to personal data protection within different sectors such as health, technology, mobility, finance and education. She assists clients in preparation and handling of commercial agreements, including consortium agreements, project agreements, license and technology transfer agreements.

She regularly litigates cases before the courts and is also lecturer in intellectual property issues and contract law. She is frequently used as a lecturer at the Norwegian Industrial Property Office.

✉ kmh@sands.no

☎ +47 22 81 45 87

Expertise areas

Intellectual property law

Dispute resolution and litigation

Data protection / Privacy

Forensic services

Compliance and Risk management

Work experience

2008 -

■ SANDS Advokatfirma DA
Attorney at law / Partner

1999 - 2008

■ The Norwegian Patent Office
Advisor

1995 - 1998

■ Zacco Norway AS
Advisor

Education

2002

■ University of Oslo
Copyright

2001

■ University of Oslo
Data protection

1998

■ University of Oslo

Cand. jur.,

1997

■ Université de Bordeaux, France

Intellectual property rights and human rights

Publications

2002

■ "Judicial electronic data interchange in Norway"

Report in collaboration with UiO and University in Bologna (Italy)

Awards

2020

■ Legal 500

"Katrine Malmer-Høvik is well prepared and gives an impressive performance in litigation"

2020

■ Chambers

"She is very knowledgeable in IP law and innovative, trying to find solution-oriented approaches to problems"