

Lars Selmar Alsaker

Partner

Alsaker is specialised within public and administrative law. He has over many years assisted clients in cases related to building and zoning law and regulatory cases related to aquaculture.

The assistance to clients within aquaculture includes regulatory challenges related to concessions, permits for aquaculture localities, fish health and infection control and government sanctions. He is a regular columnist in the trade journals and internet newspapers, Norsk Fiskerinæring, Norsk Sjømat and fiskejuss.no. Alsaker is part of the Steenstrup-team assisting The Norwegian Seafood Association.

Alsaker assists construction clients with regard to zoning processes, building applications, refund cases and appeals. He had participated as a lecturer and sensor at the building and zoning law course at the University of Bergen. Alsaker also writes regularly on building law issues in Byggindustrien and byggeblogg.no.

Alsaker has also an extensive litigation experience.
