

Martin Fevaag Larsen

Partner

Martin Fevaag Larsen specializes in transaction advisory services and assists private investment companies and funds and other private companies with investments, acquisitions and corporate and contract law. He also acts for industrial and technology companies.

Martin has expertise in all legal aspects of merger and acquisition processes, and has extensive experience in planning and executing large and complex cross border transaction processes. His experience also includes restructuring, general corporate law as well as consulting and negotiation in connection with the structuring and establishment of joint ventures and other forms of cooperation between private companies. Larsen has extensive experience with the structuring, development and acquisition/sale of commercial property.

✉ mfl@sands.no

☎ +47 73 99 27 18

Expertise areas

Mergers and Acquisitions

Company law

Commercial property

Work experience

■ SANDS Advokatfirma DA	2012 -
Advokatfullmektig Advokat Senioradvokat Partner

Education

■ University of Oslo	2012
Master of Laws	