

Terje Gulbrandsen

Partner

Gulbrandsen is an M&A specialist, with an emphasis on company and contract law. He has broad experience advising on domestic and international transactions (public, private and PE). In addition to his law degree, Gulbrandsen holds a Master of Business and Economics. Gulbrandsen further has extensive experience advising on capital market transactions, including IPOs and other offerings. He is also part of SANDS' forensic services team, and assists clients with corporate law and transaction related investigations.

Gulbrandsen is acknowledged for his work in legal guides such as Chambers and Partners, Legal 500, International Financial Law Review and Bestlawyers. He has worked at SANDS 2005, after joining from BA-HR.

Highly appreciated his analytical eye for detail, he never lost sight of the bigger picture and was always solution-oriented. - Chambers
